Guillaume Richard Lafleur to Thomas O. Gilman

Guillaume Richard dit Lafleur came to Quebec as a soldier of the Carignan Salières regiment in the summer of 1665. Ten years later, on November 26, 1675, he married Ann Tessier in Montreal. The couple had eight children, six of whom grew to adulthood and married. Guillaume eventually became a captain in the Canadian militia in the parish of Pointe-aux-Trembles, on the outskirts of Montreal. He died on July 2, 1690 when his band of militiamen was overwhelmed by Iroquois warriors at Bout-de-l'Île de Montreal.
